By adding the following as a new section to precede the effective date section:

SECTION ____ Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 2-2-122, is amended by adding the following as a new subsection thereto:

(e)

(1) A police officer and the members of the police officer's immediate family may for the purposes of the election code register to vote using a post office box, provided that the police officer certifies under oath the following:

(A) That the primary residence home residence and the post office box lie within the police officer's voting precinct;

(B) That as a result of the police officer's past or future law enforcement duties, the police officer and his or her immediate family cannot disclose such residential address; and

(C) That the election commission in the county of the police officer's primary home residence has been furnished the police officer's voting precinct for the police officer's primary residential address.

(2) As used in this subsection, the term "immediate family" means the spouse and children living in the police officer's primary home residence.
